

A writing activity from

Grimm & Co

30 Grimm Days

Days Twenty-seven to Thirty

You will need:

- The ability to watch and listen to the activity instructions (these have been recorded, so you'll need to be able to listen to them through a computer or phone, or through headphones and you'll need a screen to see each step of the process)
- Paper, pencil/pen
- Small items from around your home

Day Twenty-eight: Use small things from around your home to recreate a famous scene from film, television or literature. The items you use must be deemed as small. You cannot draw anything on small pieces of paper, nor can you use small pictures. Can members of your household guess correctly?

Day Twenty-nine: The animals are reclaiming the world since we've been in lockdown. Pretend to be an animal who is roaming the streets and exploring now that all the humans are away. Write a narrative about what they're getting up to.

Day Thirty: Lists are a great way to focus your mind. These lists are not to-do lists but a culmination of information about YOU. Here are a few examples of potential lists you could generate:

- The activities you have completed during 30 Grimm Days.
- Pets you have had and their names.

- The films you enjoy watching.
- People you love the most.
- The best food to eat.
- Your favourite toys.
- Your proud accomplishments
- Music you like to listen to.
- People from history you'd like to have a conversation with
- The games you are good at playing

As these sessions are focused on writing for wellbeing, there is no pressure at all to share your writing with us. However, if you would like to, we would love to hear from you.

You could take a photo, type up your work, or use any form you like. If you're a member of one of our out-of-school writing groups, you could upload your work to your Seesaw journal.

If you're accessing this activity independently, or through your school, we'd still love to share in the amazing writing you've created! You can post your work on social media, tagging us @GrimmAndCo, or email your work to grimmaphothecary@gmail.com.
