Dear Mortals, both fully grown and mini-sized,

I know you don't know me, but my name is Graham Grimm, and I am the founder of Grimm & Co, apothecary to the magical. We sell potions and concoctions to magical beings far and wide.

I am writing because

I require your help.

Bits of my story have done a runner. Scarpered. Literally fallen off the page. In my wise old age, I'm afraid I'm struggling to remember core memories.

To access my story, you need to go onto the World Wide Web – I think that's what you call it, here: www.grimmandco.co.uk/missingmemories. Feel free to go to the folder that best works for you, as I wanted to make sure all of you were able to use the information. As you read my story, you'll see the key elements that are missing.

I've had a good clear out and found some documents that might be of some help to you. I have enclosed these pieces of evidence in the Case of the Missing Memories pack. The story will prompt you to use them at the correct time. Hopefully they'll give you a clue or two about the missing bits and should help fill the gaps.

Please try and complete the story, you'd be an honorary guest of Grimm & Co for 12, 678 years if you do.

Kind regards and good 'ealth,

G. Grimm
