Isobel B- Sunflower

So let me just tell you that jist, as a sunflower, I'm well known flower that flourishes in sunlight and is so unique. So I kind of find it strange that I'm not the one with this sculpture. I bring joy, a sense of pride to people, I'm just a flower that makes people smile.

So why of all things? Does this flower get something instead of me? I'm one of the first flowers people think of, they'll stand out. If you look around now. Don't you think I would look amazing as a centrepiece here? People point me out like, hey, look how cool that is. They would marvel at my intricacy and how delicate I am. So why are you not looking at a sculpture of me now? Because people don't see how amazing I am. They should just you wait.

Adam- Air

I need a sculpture if I am to be appreciated. If not, I will make a blizzard. Now onto the reasons why should be appreciated, by the way I actually need to be made out of glass, any shape.

One- Nothing on earth can live without me.

Two- They can feel me but can't see me.

Three- I can be hot or cold or even wind.

Four- I can smell nice or rejecting, depending on my surroundings.

Five- I AM EVERYWHERE on Earth.

Six- I am fun.

Seven- I am inflation.

Eight- I'm really cold and frost.

Nine- When I'm really hot I am steam.

Ewan B-H- Mr Cheese

Mr. Cheese wants statue. Why? I'll tell you. Cheesetopia does many good things. For example, we provide sanctuary for allies of Cheesetopia, all cheese shall live here. No humans. Never shall any human enter Cheesetopia, except allies who pledge their allegiance to me, I will take over the world and declare it Cheesetopia and enslave all humans and steal all the biscuits in the world. And I will also force all humans to do hard labour and gardening.

Finley- Rose

So I've heard a little rumour about me and my status, about being the prettiest and most delicate flower possible. Apparently it has been ripped away from me. Apparently this new precious flower called for Camellia has taken my title away from me.

I'll admit, it's pretty, but I've been here longer. It's just not fair, the flower community will be hearing about this.

Harry B- Penguin

I am a penguin and I think I should have a sculpture, because everyone loves me, i'm cute and i'm fluffy. I'm also very fashionable, and I should have big sculpture, because I'm also cuddly and big.

I think that I should have a sculpture in the city because I am amazing.

Husna

A flower thinking it's better than me mwahahaha. Without me a flower wouldn't be alive. I can fly higher than a flower. So I am more superior, a flower it needs sunlight but I can block that. I can make a flower drown of thirst. I can make a flower have so much water thirst it's a nightmare. I can create a storm so powerful it will feel like rage and anger for eternity. I am better. I am more powerful. I am superior.

Joey- A chat with Camellia

"Why do you get a statue? I'm obviously better."

"To be fair, I don't have a clue."

"Oh, but you do."

"Well, I do carry an exotic origin from East Asia."

"Okay, but I am a sole reason humans exist."

"Maybe you could get your own someday."

"But I want it now."

Joseph

I should get a statue honestly, like I'm super smart and a flower literally has no brain, so dumb. I literally have the mental IQ to wash my food before I eat it. I am just so freakin cool. Cool beans

Joscelyn- River

I think the river should have a statue, animals and plants need it. I like that the river feels and looks wet.

Leo- Lion

I should be a statue because lions are beautiful. I have sharp teeth. I'm the king of the animals. I have a terrifying roar. And I shouldn't be standing. I am made of gold. I shall be made of gold. I would interest people. I would be 10 metres tall.

Muhammad Ali- Iron Ore

I should have a statue because iron ore comes from hills and that makes steel. That is what makes Sheffield the Steel City that Sheffield is famous for. There's even some sculptures of people working through World War Two when the women worked while the men were soldiers and fighting. Three of them are in Meadowhall.

Violet- Peacock Spider

Why should the Camellia have a statue? I'm a Peacock Spider. I spend all doing the YMCA just to make people laugh. I also spend my time trying to convince people spiders aren't scary. I think we should have a statue because we're much more interesting. All camellias do is stand there, not doing anything at all. I'm very helpful because of all the legs I have.

William W

How can it be that it's the Camellialou and not me? I can cook your eggs and smell like it when I'm cooking. I am the mighty, I'm amazing. Forget your cute cats. Forget that, I'm still better than them. I can solve global warming. I can give you nice hot springs, I can do more than you can realise. I am best and you should worship me. I am the best and well, only. You'll regret this one day, mark my words.
